

对抗大地（中篇）

Fighting the Earth (Cont.)

It's not even the most terrifying thing...

He catches the chance of his opponent's momentary slack and lowers his body! Together with virtue of gravity

He smashes himself against the ground!

Meanwhile he grabs his opponent and swings the body with a special skill.

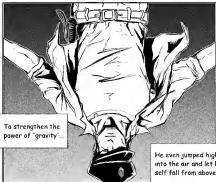

and turns 'gravity' into power!

The higher you fly, the heavier you fall...

To strengthen the power of "gravity"...

He even jumped high into the air and let himself fall from above!

Taste it well...

The power of earth

Catch the opponent
when he's about to touch the ground...

and transfer all
the damage from
'gravity'...

to his opponent!

This is my finishing move!

As well as the rage of earth!
